

Kentucky National Shorthorn

Mar. 19, 1960

FUTURITY
SHOW AND SALE

On the front cover . . . Ox Valley Aristocrat, Grand Champion Bull, 1958 Kentucky National Futurity Show and Sale, consigned by Ox Valley Farms, Scotsburg, Indiana, purchased for $1,475 by Arthur Alexander, Irvington, Kentucky.

S. J. Stokes, Jr., Lexington, President of the Kentucky Shorthorn Association and William Meacham, Vice-President, look over the 1959 Meacham champion bull, K F Rex Talisman, purchased for $1,125 by L. G. Byars, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

The Kentucky Shorthorn Breeders' Association would like to take this opportunity to thank publicly the Kentucky Department of Agriculture, Emerson Beachamp, Commissioner, for the important role it has taken in the development of this sale.

The liberal premiums they have helped us provide have enabled us to secure cattle that would not be offered for sale under any other circumstances. It has stimulated the production of better Shorthorns within the state, and has helped make Kentucky a focal point for the distribution of superior seed stock.

Hanson Heights Farms, best paid bull and female, 1959 Kentucky Futurity. The bull was purchased by H & S Farms, Hopkinsville, the heifer by Linda Halsey, McGhee, Arkansas.

Typical show scene at the Kentucky Futurity.

How many sales do you attend where there is just an occasional animal you feel would help your herd? You can attend this sale with the knowledge that in this sixty head offering are more of the "take home" kind than in most sales several times its numerical size.

Younger bulls being led out in class at the 1954 Kentucky Futurity.

YEARS . . . 585 HEAD . . . $290,080

When the Kentucky Legislature, a number of years ago, passed an act setting up a special premium fund for national shows and sales of each of the major beef breeds, they had a definite purpose in mind. The aim of this far-sighted legislation was to get buyers from all over the nation accustomed to traveling to Kentucky for top registered stock . . . the same as they do for horses. Secondly, by holding the sales in Kentucky, it was only natural that a large share of the best cattle sold would stay in Kentucky to build stronger herds. Also, with these premiums as attractions, Kentucky breeders were stimulated to breed better cattle, and take an increasingly large part in the Futurity themselves.

Has this program worked? Judge for yourself. In the ten years this sale has been held at Bowling Green, 585 lots of Shorthorns have been sold for a total of $290,080 or an overall average of $496. Cattlemen from 20 states and Canada have purchased here.

A requirement of this sale is that every animal in the show, must be sold at auction.

* * * *

In any ten year period there is an up and down fluctuation of the beef market. While all registered prices reflect this pattern, it is interesting to note how stable the prices of quality Shorthorns have been, even during the periods of a declining beef market.

Your best protection, as a beef cattleman, therefore, is to be involved in a herd program that will continue to raise the quality of your productions every year.

Last year the Kentucky Futurity averaged $438. A good bull or a top female will work in your herd for many years, leaving a heritage of descendants. Figure the cost of owning a good one over the cost of a mediocre animal. Amortize this difference over all the descendants . . . and then ask yourself if anyone can afford to go on year in, year out producing mediocre cattle. Put your herd on a program of replacing poor producers every year with strong new bloodlines . . . like those that can be obtained in this sale.

Brown-Forman Nonpareil, grand champion female, 1959 Kentucky Futurity, purchased for $825 by L. G. Byars, Bowling Green.

GENERAL SHOW INFORMATION

LOCATION: The Western Kentucky State Teachers College Farm which is on the outskirts of Bowling Green, Kentucky.

This bull has grown up the hard way and so will not be in top condition, but will be in good shape to go out and get the job done.

The Place to Buy a Herd Bull

Is Where the Most Good Bulls are Offered

How many sales have you attended where there is only one, or possibly no bulls that you would consider to head your herd? It is true, there are sales that contain more bulls, but no sale contains a greater number of the kind you would consider as your next herd bull. There are 20 bulls in this sale. There will be no better place this spring to select a top junior herd sire.

BROWN-FORMAN PERFECT is by Ringwell Lodestar, a $10,000 son of Beaufort Bulldozer that is owned by the University of Kentucky. He was an International grand champion and is the sire of champions. The bulls that he sired and were sold by John Shuman in Colorado averaged in the four figures. This bull's dam is an excellent good imported cow. Her first calf, a red heifer, sold to George Arrowsmith for $2,000. Her next calf was sired by Leveledale Basis and is our junior herd sire. Brown-Forman Perfect is her third calf. He is a bull with a very strong head, lots of quality, and exceptionally heavy bone, the kind of bull you would expect with this strong pedigree. He will suit the man who wants to improve his cattle as well as his pedigrees.

BROWN-FORMAN BEAUTY 12th—She comes from our good Beauty family that has produced so many good cattle. This family produced the grand champion steer over all breeds in the Louisville Fat Stock Show that sold for a record price of $8,500 to Fischer Packing Company. Brown-Forman Beauty 11th was sold to Bilmar Farms for $1,150. She was carrying a calf that sold to Edellyn Farms for $1,000. It pays to buy heifers from a family that produces the good ones. She has been examined and is safe in calf to our junior herd bull, Basis Contribution, bred July 17, 1959, vaccinated, and from an accredited herd.

This group of heifers was sold by Luther K. Rice in a former Kentucky Futurity sale. They are typical of the high quality offered each year from this great herd. This year Rice Farms are sending two bulls, six females.

LADY CLIPPER—By Senator's Marshall out of a cow by Endeavor that we are very pleased with. Her dam has one of the best Scotsdale Marine heifers that we have here at Shagbark. We feel that this heifer being bred to Marine will produce a calf well worth the price of the cow. Bred August 11 to Scotsdale Marine, son of the Perth Champion, Calrossie Prefect. Vaccinated, Pre-tested and clean.

This group was consigned to the 1958 Kentucky Futurity by the Meachams. The heifers all sold, but the bull was withdrawn several weeks prior to the sale to be retained to follow his famous sire. This bull, K F Prince Monty, is the sire of K F Crown Prince, Lot 21. The Meachams have another strong consignment this year, two bulls, five females.

Time To Improve Your Cow Herd

Every progressive herd should follow a plan of replacing a few of its poorest producers each year with top new blood. The 40 beautiful heifers offered in this sale provide one of 1960's greatest opportunities. Any herd starting with a selection of these would have one of the strongest herd foundations in the business.

History proves that the females in this sale sell at reasonable prices. Is there any reason to breed mediocre cattle, when for so little difference you can send a worn out cow to market and replace her with a top heifer.

B-F CLIPPER JEWEL 4th is a heifer that we should keep in the herd. She has a good head, good lines, and is exceptionally smooth. Her sire, Kirkforthar Endeavor, sired many good cattle in Mr. Rice's herd. She is a full sister to Brown-Forman Endeavor that we sold to John Anderson of Tennessee for $1,350 in our 1954 sale. He has sired some excellent cattle for Mr. Anderson. This Clipper Jewel family has produced lots of good cattle for everyone who has owned them. She sells open, vaccinated and from an Accredited herd.

HOLTBROOK O BLOSSOM W 5th—This heifer's dam is one of the largest brood cows we have ever owned. Possibly the last heifer by M F Willingdon to be sold. His Kentucky Beef Cattle Performance Testing record shows an average index value for all his calves of 122. Our herd was the second herd in Kentucky entered on this program. This heifer has an index value of 127 and an adjusted daily gain of 2¼ pounds. A young heifer selling open. From a Woodford County, Kentucky, brucellosis and T.B. certified free herd.
